DECEMBER . . . 1962

The team oath, which all team members agree to, summarizes the overall purpose of the team and is as follows:

"In accepting this position on the 1963 U.S. International Soaring Team, I agree to work for the overall success of the team and to take part in the World's Gliding Championships in fair competition, respecting the regulations which govern them and with the desire to participate in the true spirit of sportsmanship for the honor of my country, the SSA and for the glory of motorless flight."

Publications

"U.S. Civil Aircraft, Vol. 1." The first of a series on all the U.S. civil-type aircraft that have been approved for manufacture since 1927.
