FREE GLIDER TRAINING

for VETERANS under the GI BILL of rights

GOOD NEWS for Veterans . . . The Schweizer Aircraft Corp. Glider School, now approved for Veterans Training, under the G. I. Bill, is making the dreams of hundreds of Ex-Servicemen come true . . . "G. I. JOE"—and "JILL," too, NOW you can learn to SOAR, and Uncle Sam pays the bill.

GET YOUR CAA GLIDER PILOT LICENSE after completing the G. I. Course, which includes 10 hours' flight time, and 50 hours' ground school instruction, in the latest Schweizer Gliders and Sailplanes, and with the best instructors in the game. All books are furnished, gratis.

TO ENROLL, take your Honorable Discharge to the nearest office of the Veterans Administration, and get a Certificate of Eligibility . . . Present this Certificate to SAC Glider School, and you're IN!

SUBSISTENCE payments, in addition to training costs, are paid by the Government to Veterans attending school full-time, and/or earning less than the legal limit.

THERE'S STILL TIME TO ENROLL IN THE FALL CLASSES

BOARD and ROOM at reasonable cost will be secured for out-of-town students attending the school. Beginners need from 5 to 7 weeks to complete the course, but Power Pilots and others with some flying experience are entered at appropriate levels, and can finish training sooner.
