

FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS—The skies over this dozen square miles of Western New York hills and dales, around Elmira, have seen the full development of motorless flying in America.

EASC

JULY-AUGUST, 1955