

Will this sailplane prove to be so popular that National contests will soon be truly a measure of the skill of the pilots in the air, rather than their technical skill on the ground?

The Schweizer 1-26 about to land at the Schweizer Plant, Elmira.

MARCH-APRIL, 1955