

This seems to be a rugged terrain to be avoided by all but the most experienced pilots . . . that LK is being flown by Joe Lincoln of Arizona Soaring Association on his first solo and on his way down from almost 14,000 feet. (See the first instalment of his story "Beginner's Luck" on page 13)

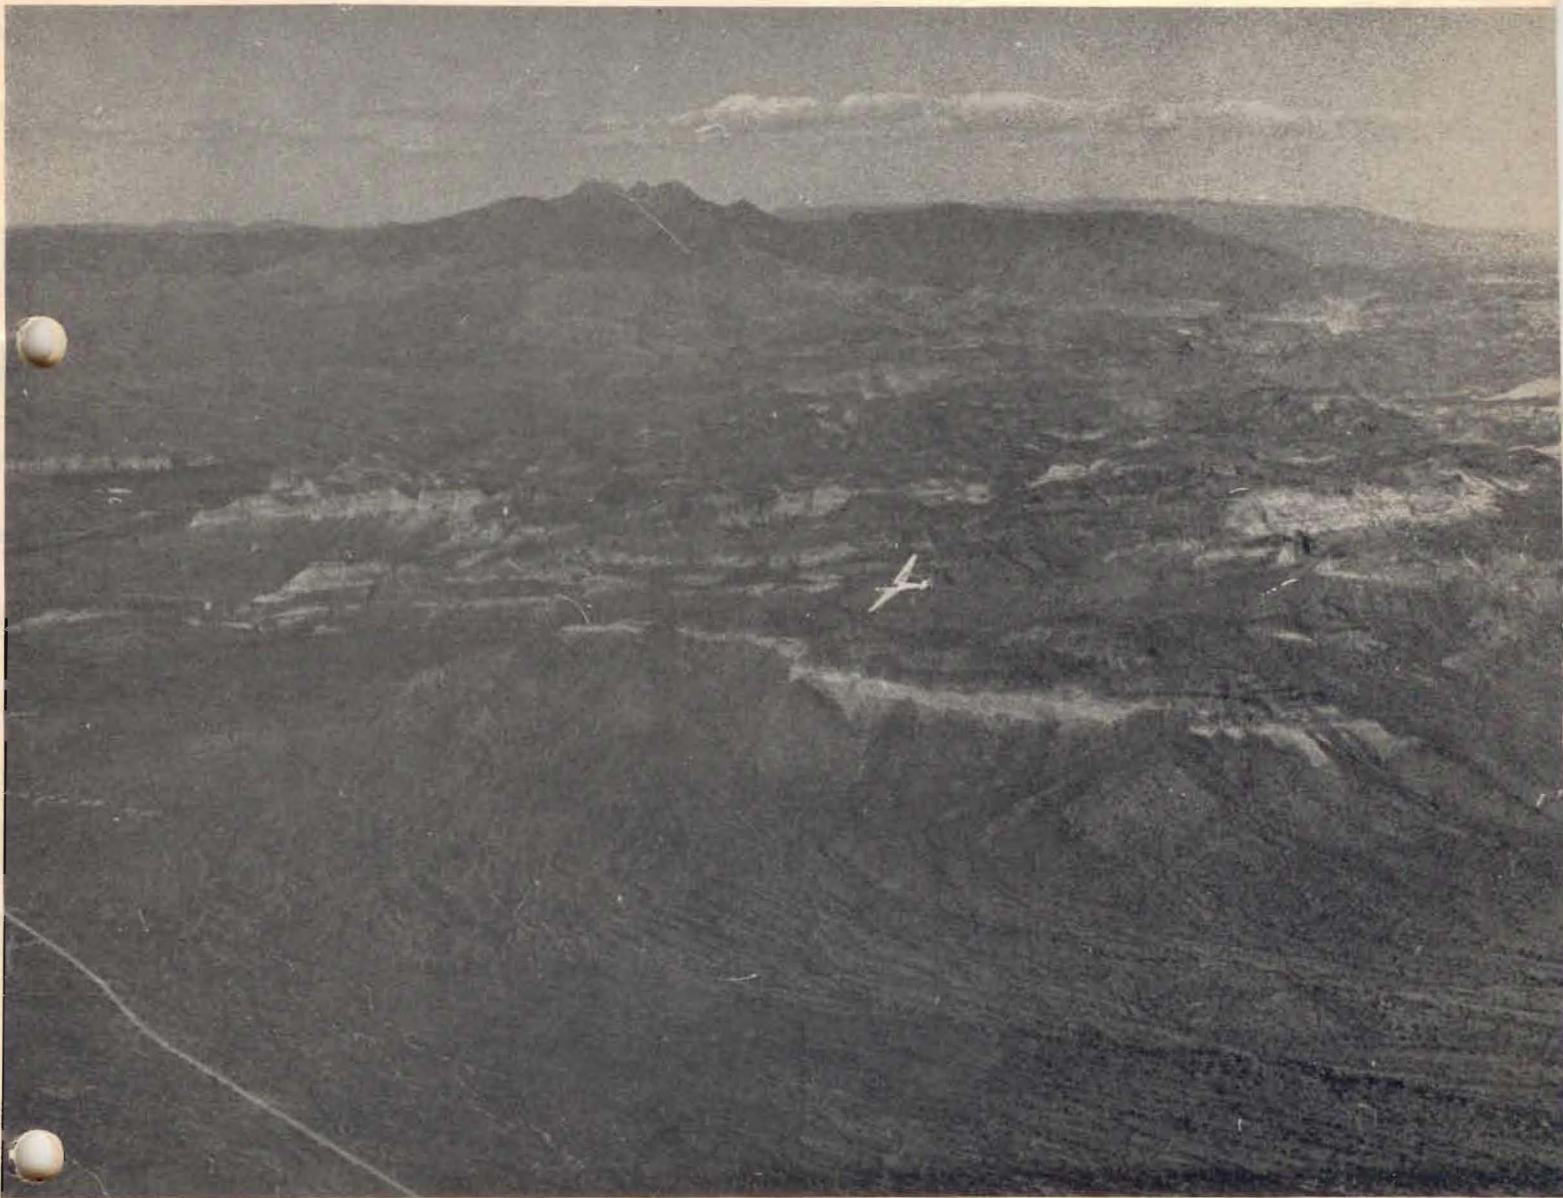

Photo: Derek Van Dyke.