

Photo: Rose Marie Licher

Dave McNay in his flat-top Schweizer 1-26 sailplane cruises effortlessly back and forth on the ridge at Torrey Pines during the first day of the 1960 Meet. The points he accumulated on this and other flights during the Meet earned for him the title of Pacific Coast Midwinter Soaring Champion.