

Photo: Bob Locke

The Pratt-Read sailplane of the Hawaii Wing of C.A.P. being flown by Tom Winkler over the Waimanalo sector of the Koolau mountain range. Honolulu is just across the mountains. Winkler and Geza Vass made a two-place duration flight of 23 hours and 14 minutes in this P-R last fall, utilizing the lift provided by steady trade winds blowing against the mountains.