

Photo by Leslie Benis

The Prue 215 sailplane owned and being flown by Harold D. Hutchinson on an aero-tow take-off from El Mirage Field, California. Wheel retracts. Although the ship is some 10 years old it still looks as sleek and modern as the latest from European production lines. It will be entered in the 1962 Nationals to be held at El Mirage Field.