

Photo by Lloyd Spainhower

One of the aerodynamically cleanest L-K's still flying, having been flat-topped at Mississippi State by the late Gus Raspel and his associates. It is now owned by "Raney" Bell and is shown here near the Flying Dutchman Airport, Belleville, Ill., being flown by Fred Friedewald.