

WINNERS OF THE SSA LIFE MEMBERSHIP CONTEST

If you wondered how the prize winners of the Life Membership Contest were selected, here's a graphic illustration showing Executive Secretary, Lloyd Licher and Miss Olsen, daughter of Maj. Ray Olsen of the Tarheel Soaring Club, engaged in the tirage at McCook, Neb.

Winners of the SSA Life Membership Contest were determined on July 8, 1964, at the Annual General Meeting of SSA, held at McCook, Nebraska, during the Nationals. The 30 prizes went to the first 30 persons whose names were drawn by lot. Those eligible for the drawing were all who became SSA Life Members in the first half of 1964, a total of 56. There were 72 Life Members when the contest started, thus SSA had 128 at the end.

The winners and their prizes are as follows:

1. Alexander Stolley of Cincinnati, Ohio, a new Peravia barograph, donated by Steve duPont.

2. Bill Ferguson of Fort Huachuca, Arizona, a new Moore electric variometer with audio attachment, donated by Moore Instruments, 817 Windsor Rd., Cumberland, Md.

3. Fritz Compton of South Miami, Fla., a Jeppesen J-AID Manual, FC-2 Flight Case and Jeppesen Instrument Rating Course, donated by Jeppesen & Co.

4. A. Jess Haines of Orange, Calif., a Cape Cod Wind Speed Indicator and Wind Direction Indicator.
