Helms Awards

There have been four additions to the Helms Hall Soaring Hall of Fame in the past two years. These were, in 1964, Raymond H. Parker and Irving O. Prue, and, in 1965, Alvin H. Parker and Wallace A. Scott.

Action on adding these four was taken at the same time late in 1965 because the Helms Board of Directors could not give due consideration to the nominations (made by SSA) at any of their infrequent earlier meetings. The four honored

NEW from MENTOR

SOLID STATE VHF TRANSCEIVERS

The new TR-10X is especially designed for sailplane operation . . . it's fully transistorized for maximum reliability and extended battery life . . . powered by economical dry batteries or rechargeable power pack . . . excellent long-range sensitivity and more than 5 watts speaker output.

High performance of the Mentor TR-10 Receiver is combined with a 5-channel transmitter to provide a compact 2-way system. Receiver covers the aviation band from 108 to 127 mc . . . transmitter channels are 122.5, 122.7, 122.8, 123.0 and 123.3 mc. with substitutions available at slight extra cost.

For installations where nav/com is desired, the Mentor TR-10XV provides for coupling to a VOR/LOC converter indicator. This model uses transmitter channel 122.1 in place of 123.3 mc.

Model TR-10X Transceiver $395.00

Model TR-10XV Transceiver $445.00

Our certified glider flight instructors will be glad to help you upgrade your ratings. This winter is a good time to do it.

persons will have their names inscribed on the Soaring Hall of Fame Trophy at Helms Hall and each will receive a large certificate attesting to the award. SSA obtained the certificates from Helms Hall on February 8th and now arrangements must be made for suitable presentation of the certificates to the recipients. This should be at some significant gathering of soaring people. For Ray Parker and Irving Prue, the Torrey Pines Meet Dinner has been selected. It will be held at 6:30 P.M., Saturday, March 5th, at the Clairemont Recreation Center, 3605 Clairemont Dr., San Diego. The certificates for Al Parker and Wally Scott will be sent to SSA Regional Director "Red" Wright, since they are all three in Odessa, Texas, for him to arrange for a suitable presentation.

Our congratulations to the four honorees for the significance of their achievements.
